2) Reference is invited to the R. C's letters No D 13 and D 4 dated 3rd and 5th December 1923 respectively. In the earlier communication, the Rev Commr. requested to be informed if the expenditure incurred by amildars in urgent cases out of their advances could be recouped by them out of the one lakh sanctioned in the G.O dated 22nd Nov 1923. Since sanction was accorded in a general manner in para 9 (expenditure of an urgent nature) of the G.O dated 7th Dec 1923, the R. C's reference remained unanswered. Secondly the grant of gratuitous relief to village servants (totis and talaris) recommended by the R. C. in the other communication was negatived.

3) In G.O dated the 26th Dec 1923, a maximum for the purpose has been fixed but no sources pointed out. From the statement showing the grants, allotments & balance received up to ~~the 15th Dec 1923~~ date, a sum of Rs 43,200 (Item 4) part of one lakh sanctioned in G.O dated 22nd Nov 1923 remains unallotted. The R. C will, if approved, be authorised to draw a sum of Rs 2,200 required for the purpose out of this sum.
